CHARLES DAVIS

Wins Great Junior Sagamore's Stump Over all Opposition

Second Time Honors Have Come to Tchoupitoulas Tribe within Four Years

Another Great Sun's session of the Great Council of Kentucky Red Men has been held and the work of the past year reported, new officers elected and the chiefs returned again to scout the forest for more palaces that they may be captured.

Last Tuesday and Wednesday, May the 9th and 10th, the Great Council fire was kindled in the charming city of Owensboro, where about 500 chiefs trailed to be present and participate in the proceedings.

The reports from the various committees show the order to be in a healthy and flourishing condition, and this session was pronounced one of the best ever held within the Reservation of Kentucky.

When the time came for election of Great Chiefs the name of Charles Davis of this city, was presented, together with that of Henry Yunker of Louisville, and John Sexton, of Richmond. The race was a spirited one, but Davis proved an easy winner on the first ballot, having received two more votes than both of his opponents.

This was indeed a victory for him, a victory for Tchoupitoulas Tribe and a victory for the Mountains, as it was the first time he had ever permitted his name to be voted for, he stands today the undefeated and unconquered Chief.

It was a victory for Tchoupitoulas Tribe because only four years ago W. H. McDonald, also a member of this tribe, won the same honors and it is unprecedented that the honors should twice go to a tribe within so short a time.

It is a victory for the Mountains because it is another officer elected in the Great Council from the Mountains, thus demonstrating that the Mountains are awake and enthusiastic in the work of Redmanship.

We wish to congratulate the Great Council in the wisdom it displayed in selecting for this honored and honorable position Bro. Davis. He is thoroughly alive to its duties, and no man will do more to ward the up-building of Redmanship than will he. The position is worthily bestowed.

The Great Sachem's Stump is now filled by W. A. Crader of Louisville, while the Great Senior Sagamore's stump is occupied by R. T. Crowe of LaGrange.

Frank L. Smith, of Lexington, was re-elected Great Chief of Records and T. Wade Stratton, of Cromwell was elected Great Keeper of Wampum.

J. M. Wilson Tchoupitoulas Tribe is Chairman of the Board of appeals while R. W. Cole is a member of the Finance Committee. Thus, it will be seen that Tchoupitoulas has surely received her full share of honors.

The next Great Sun's session will be held at Bowling Green on the second Tuesday in May, 1912, when the Great Chiefs will again assemble around the Council Fire to hear and give words of wisdom.

Resolutions of the Whitley County Bar

Whereas, it has been prominently mentioned from authoritative sources that the Hon. C. S. Wilson, a member of this bar, might be or become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, and whereas, the said Wilson has, as yet, made no public announcement of his intentions in this regard, now we, the Whitley County Bar, in meeting regularly held and called, do pass the following resolutions, to-wit:

Be it resolved that we endorse the action of the many people who have urged the Hon. C. S. Wilson to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals because of the efficient service he has rendered the State and the Bar of the State generally during the term since he has been chief deputy under the present clerk of said Kentucky Court of Appeals, in that he has always been kind, courteous, accommodating and painstaking in all matters relating to his office.

Be it further resolved that we endorse the honesty, integrity and ability of the Hon. C. C. Wilson as a man and a citizen of which Whitley County is proud.

Be it further resolved that we believe that the Hon. C. S. Wilson has been instrumental in shaping some of the principles of the Republican party by his writings and utterances on the unfair method of districting the State into the various districts as they exist at the present time, and upon these facts all Republicans unite in assuring him of the undivided support for the nomination should he decide to enter the race.

PLAN TO GO

Baraca-Philathea National Convention at Kansas City June 10-15. Be One of the Two Thousand Delegates.

This is to be the greatest Convention ever held by the Baracas and Philatheas. Thousands are now planning to go to Kansas City June 10th. If you can't go help send a representative. See that your teacher and president go. Pay their expenses if necessary.

In 1910 there were 33 delegates from Kentucky at the Asheville Convention. Last year there were about 30 at Jamestown. This year Kentucky will surely have at least fifty at Kansas City.

Every church in the Commonwealth that has the honor of a Baraca or Philathea class should see that some of their young men and women go to this Convention. You can't eliminate the good that may grow out of their attending.

With best wishes and hoping to meet you at the Convention, I am
Yours to serve,
LUTHER REYNOLDS, Gen. Sec.

42nd Annual Meeting of the K. S. D. A.

The Annual Meeting of the Kentucky State Dental Association to be held in Owensboro, May 23, 24 and 25, promises to be of more than usual interest to dentists of this and adjoining States on account of the numerous new methods and appliances which will be exhibited there.

Dentistry, unlike many professions, cannot be learned altogether from books and magazines, and consequently it is almost obligatory for the progressive dentist to attend these meetings. Several dentists from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois will give clinics; in fact everything indicates that this will be the largest and best meeting ever held in Kentucky.

All ethical members of the profession are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

THOMAS B. MCGREGOR.

Who is making a winning race for the nomination for Attorney General upon the Republican State ticket. He is a lawyer of ability and experience and as assistant to Attorney General James Breathitt for the last three and a half years has made an enviable record. He is an aggressive, progressive Republican and one of the best campaigners in the State. His nomination would be of great help to the State ticket in making the character of fight that the party will be called upon to make in the coming campaign.

FOR ADDAMS

Editor of the Leitchfield Gazette Comes out for Addams for Governor

(From Leitchfield Gazette.)

There are two aspirants for the nomination for Governor. What ought men who have the welfare of their party at heart to do as between these two men? It seems to be conceded that they are both good men and that either one would make a good Governor. Which one of these men will make the stronger race before the people next November? Let us be candid with each other. It is a fact recognized all over the State that it is very doubtful whether Mr. McCreary can be elected. You may inquire from almost any part of the State and you will hear of large numbers of Democrats who are swearing they will not vote for him. By no means is this opposition confined to Catholics alone but is found among all others. Then, the Republicans are evidently of the opinion that McCreary is going to get the nomination and that they can beat him. No other explanation can be made of the fact that so many Republicans are seeking gubernatorial nomination at the hands of that party, a nomination which has usually gone begging in this State. They see at least a fine chance to be elected. If the head of the Democratic ticket is defeated it is likely the entire ticket will be. Why should we jeopardize the ticket next fall in the interest of any man? Why should we even put the ticket in the least danger? Can anybody give a good reason for such a course? The political trend is toward the Democratic party all over the country. Anybody we may nominate, who is acceptable to the majority of the Democrats, can be elected Governor of Kentucky next November. Nobody seems to have anything to say against Hon. William Addams. He does not belong to any faction. He has made no enemies. He is in the prime of life. There is no reason why every Democrat in the State would not vote for him. His nomination assures the success of the Democratic ticket.

Here are two horses entered for a race, one of them has three lame legs and the other is as sound as a dollar. As a wise man on which one would you bet your money? It is the duty of the Democrats to nominate as their candidate for Governor the man who can make the strongest race.

The editor of this paper has nothing against Mr. McCreary, but is writing in the interest of the Democratic party in Kentucky. Why put it in the doubtful column when we can so easily place it where there will be no doubt.

AN INTELLIGENT COW.

If one believes what he reads, they have a wonderful cow at Charlotte, Michigan. A girl twelve years old fell into an old abandoned well in a field. Her family thought her drowned in the river, and for three days were dragging for her body. She cried for help, of course, but was unheard save by an old cow. After looking down the well for a few minutes and considering the case the cow turned around, dropped her tail down the well, and when it was grabbed hold of she pulled the girl out, safe and sound, but awful hungry. Every farmer ought to keep a cow like that around his farm. In case the barn got afire during the night she could milk herself and put the flames out.

The Needful.

"Scientists have succeeded in compressing a square meal into a cake the size of a soda cracker."
"That's fine, but it is not exactly what the world is crying for."
"Then what is?"
"The world wants the price of a square meal compressed into a disc the size of a quarter."

OFFICIAL CALL FOR CONVENTION

Republican State Central Committee Formerly Announces Time and Manner of Nominating This Year's Ticket.

DELEGATE VOTE BY COUNTIES

The official call for the Republican State Convention, which will be held in Louisville, Tuesday, May 11, to select candidates for all of the State offices to be filled by election next November has been partly organized in Louisville, and is in full as follows:

OFFICIAL CONVENTION CALL.

Louisville, Ky., April 1, 1911.
To the Republican Electors of Kentucky:

In accordance with established custom and in obedience to the rules governing the Republican Organization of Kentucky, the Republican State Central Committee of Kentucky now directs that a State Convention of delegated representatives of the Republican party of Kentucky, be held in the City of Louisville, Kentucky, at 12:30 p. m., standard time, on Tuesday, the 11th day of July, 1911, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Auditor, Treasurer, Secretary of State, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, and Clerk of the Court of Appeals, to be voted for at the November election, 1911.

The delegates to said State Convention shall be selected by County Mass Conventions to be held in the County Seat in each county at 1:30 o'clock p. m., standard time, on Saturday, July 8, 1911, except in the counties of Bell, Boyd, Campbell and Kenton, in which counties said conventions shall be held in the cities of Middlesboro, Ashland, Newport and Covington, respectively; and except in the county of Jefferson and City of Louisville, where the delegates to said State Convention shall be selected on July 8, 1911, during the same hours, in the same manner, and under the same methods, rules and provisions, as were used in the selection of delegates to the Republican Convention held in Louisville, Kentucky, on May 18th, 1909. The County Executive Committee of Jefferson County shall at once after canvassing the returns from the voting places, make up, certify and deliver to the Chairman of the State Central Committee, a list containing the names and postoffice addresses of the delegates selected in Louisville and Jefferson County, under this call to attend said State Convention.

The form of voting, save in Louisville and Jefferson County, in the County mass Conventions on all questions, shall be viva voce.

The county executive committees shall give not less than 10 days' notice of the time, the particular place or building where said county Conventions shall be held, and the manner of selecting delegates, by newspaper publication or by notice posted in conspicuous places in each voting precinct in the county.

One delegate shall be selected for each 1000 votes or fraction thereof amounting to 50 or over, cast for the Republican electors in each county at the Presidential election in 1908; the number of delegates to said State Convention apportioned under said said basis to each of the various counties of Kentucky, being as follows:

Graded Public School

On the evenings of May 25 and 26 the closing exercises of the Barbourville Graded and High School will be held in the Chapel of Union College.

On the evening of the 25th, Thursday, Dr. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, will give an address. Dr. Powell is a speaker of national reputation and in his address, "Citizenship in the Republic," the people of our community are sure to be given a rare treat. We consider it very fortunate to have the opportunity to hear such a splendid speaker and thinker; and together with the exercises which will be given by the children the evening should be a very enjoyable one.

On the evening of the 26th, Friday, Pres. H. H. Cherry of the Western Kentucky State Normal, the man who through his interest in the Kentucky school children, has built up one of the largest most enthusiastic schools in the State. Pres. Cherry comes to us with a message of hope to the public school boy. He brings a message of hope to those who believe in the Public School and its possibilities. He is a man who has done something worth while, and his name stands in that select list of intelligent and useful men known as "Who's Who in America."

It would be difficult to find two other men who are more worthy of careful consideration by a community of any class of people.

On the first evening the graduates from the Graded School will be presented and awarded diplomas, and on the second evening the graduates of the High School, the first in its history, will assist in rendering the program and will be awarded diplomas.

These evenings belong to the public, and everybody who is interested in the welfare of our community should be present to encourage the efforts of the teachers and management of the Public School in their efforts to make the school as good as the best.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public. No admission will be charged.
